

Cryo-Electron Tomography

Speaker: Holger Kohr, Thermo Fisher Scientific

Abstract: In electron cryotomography (cryo-ET), sample preparation, image acquisition techniques, reconstruction algorithms, and post-processing steps go hand in hand. Recent advancements in sample preparation will likely shift the biological research focus to thick samples and large fields of view. This talk will discuss these developments and their consequences for algorithm development.