Augmented NETT regularization for inverse problems

Speaker: Linh Nguyen, University of Idaho

Abstract: In this talk, we discuss augmented Network Tikhonov (aNETT) regularization framework for solving inverse problems. We present a convergence analysis, including stability estimates and convergence rates. We propose a possible realization together with a network architecture and a modular training strategy. Applications to sparse-view and low-dose CT will be demonstrated.