Radon transforms supported in hypersurfaces

Speaker: Jan Boman, Stockholm University

Abstract: If the Radon transform of a compactly supported distribution is supported in the set of tangent planes to a bounded convex domain D, then the boundary of D must be an ellipsoid. I will briefly recall the background for this theorem and describe recent related results.